

HAVE YOU GOT A BIRO I CAN BORROW?

WORDS BY CLIVE JAMES: MUSIC BY PETE ATKIN

Oh give me a pen and some paper Give me a chisel or a camera, A pi-ne-id
 -ano and a box of rubber bands I need room for choreography
 Add a darkroom for photography "Tie the brush into my hands"

Have you got a biro I can borrow? I'd like to write your name from the belt of O-rion to the share of the plough and the snout of the Bear to the belly of the Lion So when the sun goes down to-morrow there'll never be a minute, not a moment of the night that hasn't got you in it

Empty musical staves for practice or additional notation.